About Camphill

The innovative communities that make up the Camphill Movement have, for almost 80 years, been creating new ways of supporting people with learning disabilities and other special needs so that their full potential can find expression.

The first community was founded at Camphill House, just outside Aberdeen, Scotland, in 1940, to educate children with learning disabilities. At that time, children with learning disabilities didn't usually receive an education, either staying at home or being placed in a hospital.

Camphill's founders, led by Dr Karl König and inspired by the Austrian thinker Rudolf Steiner's philosophy of anthroposophy, wanted to make a real difference in the lives of these people who were marginalised and excluded from society. They believed that children and adults with learning disabilities had much to contribute if only their inner self could find expression.

Dr König felt that, through communities, new ways of healing might be introduced into society to counter some of the more harmful aspects of modern life. The vision still lives and each new generation in Camphill strives towards achieving it.

Camphill Communities are communities with children and adults with learning disabilities living together with co-workers and their families in such a way as to foster mutual help and understanding.

Helper and helped live and work side-by-side, each learning from the other.

Effective community-building does not come about without a struggle and makes tremendous demands on those involved, both humanly and physically. The Camphill way of life provides an enormous stimulus for those who take it up, whatever their age or ability. By providing challenges for self-advancement and by respecting the developing individuality of each person, life in Camphill allows everyone the freedom to grow to his or her fullest potential.

Camphill in Northern Ireland

There are four Camphill Communities in Northern Ireland. Glenraig Community near Holywood in Co Down, Mourne Grange near Kilkeel in Co Down, Clanabogan near Omagh in Co Tyrone and Camphill Holywood with their bakery, coffee shop and Shop in the centre of Holywood in Co Down.

Each Community has a management Council and funding is provided by Health and Social Care Trusts and charitable donations.

Camphill Community Glenraig

Camphill Community Glenraig is an integrated therapeutic community where we aim to maximise the potential of each Child, Young Person and Adult in our care and will endeavour to support families, staff, co-workers, volunteers, and partners of Glenraig.

We are a home to around 50 adults and children with special education, physical and learning needs, long and short-term life sharing volunteer co-workers and their families alongside employed staff members. Declaration of Convictions Form

We are committed to ensuring equal opportunity for all applicants. Information about criminal convictions is requested to assist the selection process and will be taken into account only when the conviction is considered relevant to the position applied for.

You have applied for a position that is defined as Regulated Activity under the Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups (NI) Order 2007. It also falls within the definition of an “excepted” position under the Rehabilitation of Offenders (Exceptions) Order (NI) 1979. This means that you must tell us about all offences and convictions, including those considered ‘spent’.

If you have received a formal caution or are currently facing prosecution for a criminal offence you should also bring this to our attention given the “excepted” nature of the role. If you leave anything out it may affect your application.

This information will be verified through an Access NI Enhanced Disclosure check if you are considered to be the preferred candidate and are being offered the position. The check will tell us if you have a criminal record or if your name has been included on the Children’s Barred List and/or Vulnerable Adults Barred List. It is to make sure that individuals who might be a risk to children and/or vulnerable adults are not appointed. Access NI has a Code of Practice which explains this in more detail a copy of this can be made available to you should you wish.

Having a criminal record will not necessarily debar you from this position, this will depend on the nature of the position, your offences or other information contained on the Disclosure Certificate or provided directly to us by the Police.

The information received will be treated confidentially and will be assessed alongside normal selection criteria to determine suitability for the position. A separate meeting will be held with you if clarification is required to discuss any issues around your disclosure before a final decision is reached. After the decision has been made the information will be destroyed.

Please complete the section below and return it with your application. The form also asks you to give your written consent to the Access NI check, which will only be obtained if you are the preferred candidate. If you do not consent we will not accept your application.

Applicants can also submit a separate statement of disclosure if they wish. This may include details such as the particular circumstances around the conviction(s); how circumstances may have changed; and what has been learnt from the experience. Applicants can contact the Northern Ireland Association for the Care and Rehabilitation of Offenders (NIACRO) for more information.
